

Dear Friends,

In Japanese, Kokoro embodies more than just the heart—it represents the spirit, soul, and deep connections that unite us as a community. It reflects our love for heritage, respect for those who came before us, and hope for future generations.

On Sunday, June 29, 2025, we invite you to Kokoro: The Heart of the Community, an afternoon on our Isamu Noguchi Plaza that will honor some remarkable individuals who have devoted themselves to preserving and enriching our cultural legacy. This event is a celebration of their lifelong contributions and a moment to express our collective gratitude for all they have done to strengthen our community.

President's Awards

Gerald (Jerry) Fukui
Don Tahara

Through music, storytelling, and shared appreciation, we honor the past and ensure our traditions continue to thrive for future generations. Your support helps us preserve these meaningful legacies and strengthens our community ties. Please refer to the enclosed sponsorship materials for details. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Akiko Manaka at akiko.manaka@gmail.com.

We would be grateful for your presence. Your participation deepens the bonds that unite us.

With gratitude,

Patricia M. Wyatt
